Quarterly Investment Review 每季投資回顧

The first quarter of 2012 showed a welcome continuation of the fairly general recovery in global stockmarkets that started in the last quarter of 2011. The MSCI Global Equity Index advanced 14.2% in US$ terms; of the major markets the star performer in the quarter was the Nikkei which rose 19.3% followed by the Dax at 17.8% and the S+P 500 at 12.0% while the FTSE100 was somewhat of a laggard at 3.7% - all in US$ terms. The performance of the exchanges with a heavy resource influence were also rather more muted; Australia's S+P ASX 200 was up 6.9% and Canada's S+P TSE Composite was up 3.7%.

2012 年第一季度全國股市繼 2011 年第四季度持續復蘇。以美元計價的摩根士丹利資本國際全球股票指數上漲 14.2%，主要市場中，在本季度表現最佳的是日經指數上漲 19.3%，其次是法蘭克福 DAX 上漲 17.8%，標普 500 上漲 12%，而富時 100 指數落後於其他指數微漲 3.7%。受到眾多因素的影響，匯率的表現更顯得平淡。澳大利亞的標普 ASX 200 指數上漲 6.9%，加拿大的標普 TSE 綜合指數上漲 3.7%

The economic background remains relatively unchanged; economic growth is fragile and decidedly wan for a supposed recovery phase particularly in the USA, Europe and Japan. Interest rates and inflation have therefore stayed low and are likely to do so for the foreseeable future. Employment remains the major bugbear for the developed economies, the growth rates so far achieved have done little to alleviate the unemployment situation particularly amongst the young. The banking system is still vulnerable to funding problems and all governments have had to resort to further quantitative funding measures; disguised in the case of the euro area by being called LTRO's [long term refinancing operations]. A further unwanted problem has been the stand-off with Iran leading to a spike in the price of oil. Corporates are however generally well funded and profits and dividends have been satisfactory making equities attractive in relation to bonds.

在經濟狀況相對保持不變的情況下，經濟增長仍然微弱，尤其在美國，歐洲和日本地區。利率和通貨膨脹率處於低位，並可能在預見的未來保持現狀。就業仍然是主要發達經濟體的難題，迄今所取得的經濟增長並未舒緩失業情況，尤其是年輕人的就業問題。銀行體系依然面臨資金難題，各國政府不得不採取進一步量化的資助措施，這個現象在歐元區被稱做長期再融資操作。另一個我們不希望看到的情況是，與伊朗的對峙可能導致石油價格大漲。然而，企業能夠融到資金，優異的利潤和股息使得股票相對於債券更具有吸引力。

As we go into the second quarter of the year it has to be said that some of the confidence of the last quarter is wearing thin; the old problems remain and are merely being papered over by quantitative easing measures. None of the developed economies is yet actually reducing government debt; fearful that to do so would kill off what little growth is evident. Also the problems of the eurozone periphery have begun to spread to Italy and Spain. Given this rather troubled background it is difficult to envisage markets being particularly buoyant through the summer; we may have to wait for a clearer picture to emerge later in the year.

當我們進入今年的第二季度，第一季度市場所持有的信心可能進一步減弱，老問題仍然存在，量化寬鬆措施不能完全解決問題。發達經濟體仍舊沒有減少政府債務，可怕的是，如果這麼去做了，將顯而易見地影響微弱的經濟增長現狀。另外，歐元區週邊的問題也已開始蔓延到義大利和西班牙。鑒於如此經濟困境，很難設想資本市場在整個夏季會有所表現。我們可能要等到今年晚些時候才能見到明朗的經濟發展狀況。
